INTOXICATING LIVING MADE POSSIBLE

Have you grown weary about the possibility of ever living your big dreams? Are you ready to step into a new chapter in your life, but you feel so busy and overwhelmed that you keep putting it on hold for someday? Do you have a big, bold, beautiful vision of what you want, but you don't know how you'll ever get there?

You can lay your worries to rest because a powerful, one-of-a-kind solution has been created. And it's all waiting for you in the Quantum Living Program.

- Have you ever wondered what the secret is to being a powerful manifester?
- Have you felt stuck in wanting to step into your next big life chapter and dream, because you're not clear about the steps you need to take, or the best path to get there?
- Have you secretly, seriously questioned if you'll ever be in a place in your life where living your dreams is your new, every day normal?

I know these feelings and questions all too well, and I'm here to tell you that not only is it all possible, it's your absolute destiny.

There is a part of you that knows, without a shadow of a doubt, that what I'm saying here is true. It's that wise, visionary, soulful part of you that I will invite you to listen to again and again because it knows exactly what's possible for you. It knows everything that's waiting for you.

It knows, and all you have to do is listen...

My name is Alicia Morrow, and I've been on a steep and powerful road of personal growth and transformation for over 20 years. If there's anything that I've learned over time, both through my own journey and experience and coaching other amazing women like yourself, it's that every woman is incredibly wise, powerful and resourceful. Every woman has a dream and a burning desire deep inside of her, because every woman was born with this.

It's part of who you are, why you're here, and what you're here to enjoy and experience in this lifetime.

And yet, it's sadly rare to see a woman give herself full permission to own her dreams without feeling she's somehow selfish or wrong by doing so.

Very few women feel free to passionately pursue their dreams and desires with the inherent enthusiasm and joy that they possess. Even fewer women allow themselves to fully receive and enjoy their passions without guilt, apology or concern about what others might think or say about them.

And yet these dreams, desires and heart-felt longings persist. They lie dormant, waiting for you to acknowledge them, accept and honor them, and take bold, beautiful and inspired action on their behalf.

The key to all of this lies in saying yes to YOU. To you, your dreams, and to the powerful life force that unfurls from deep inside of you when you honor the dreams and passions that live in your heart.

It's simple - but you have to be willing to take action! And very few women do.

You can't wait around, hoping and praying that your dreams will somehow find you or be handed to you so that you can then live happily ever after. That's just not how this works.

You have to take inspired action that will demonstrate your level of commitment and desire to the Universe so that it can respond to you!

The powerful thing is that the one thing that you want the most is also likely the very thing you are most afraid of pursuing. And your desires, those things that tug at your heart and whisper to you from the depths of your soul, literally demand you to pursue those things that you know you want.

This incredible connection and wisdom that lives side-by-side with the longings in your heart and soul, it supercharges you with life force, with passion, and with the most potent force of the Universe. It is seeking to flow through you and be the catalyst inside of you that gets you out of bed in the morning, ready to greet the day with arms wide open, and dance with the magic that is in and all around you. Always.

Can you feel your dreams and desires call you as you read this?

Is there a "YES!" on the tip of your tongue, just aching to be spoken?

The wisdom from my soul is calling yours to "Take the leap... because there's nothing more important in life than your breathtaking, magnificent dreams!"

Perhaps you've been scared or uncertain. Maybe you're not as clear as you'd like to be. Perhaps your dreams and desires have confused you because they don't make rational sense, or you can't see how they fit in with your life as it currently stands.

Or maybe you fear that everything you've worked so hard to create up until this point will be put in jeopardy when you introduce this new dream into the mix. Maybe it all feels too big, like you'll lose yourself in the process, or even lose those you love along the way.

I'm here to show you that loving and living your dreams can be done... with grace, poise, laughter and light.

I am here to coach and guide you, to reflect the truth of who you really are back to you, to believe in you when you've lost faith in your self, to take your dreams and vision to new heights of power and possibility (where they really belong), and to hold you accountable to the beauty and wisdom of your soul.... If you're ready...

I've spent YEARS - more than two decades - transforming myself from the inside out and creating a life and a powerful business that I cherish and adore. I've gone through many personal and life revisions, always refining and redefining who I am, and very deliberately and consciously choosing the life that will support me and reflect my dreams and my truth into the world.

I tried for years to live in other ways - I've tried to be smaller, to hide who I really am (from myself and others), I've struggled with finances and challenging health issues, and I've spent so much time and energy dimming and diminishing my beauty in subtle, self-sabotaging ways.

I've tried to be who and what others told me I should be. Trust me when I say that trying to fit someone else's idea, story or mold is incredibly painful. Nothing in my life looked or felt "right" or "true" until I started being true to myself.

Over the years I've heard thousands of women express their fears, doubts, struggles and loneliness as they've walked the path less trodden to discover, express and live as their true selves, just as I have.

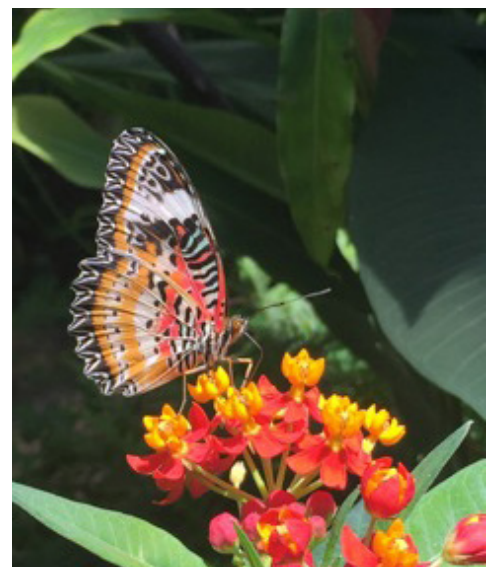

I've watched as other women have given up on their dreams, hardened their hearts, pretended it wasn't that important and hidden how broken, wounded and sad this made them feel. I've seen women lose sleep, put on unwanted weight, send themselves into health crises, vacillate between feeling resentful and depressed on most days - because they hit an unexpected obstacle along the way and didn't have the tools or support to climb over it and soar into their next amazing chapter of their lives.

And yes, I did all of that too.

To see women give up, put their dreams on a shelf and walk away from them pierces my heart because after all that I went through... I kept going.

Now matter how many times I fell down and got hurt, doubted and feared my dreams would never come true, I kept going because I knew there was something better just waiting for me - almost within my reach - and I knew that my dreams and desires were there for a reason.

I knew they lit me up on the inside, made me feel equally scared and excited, and that they felt like the reason why I was placed here on earth. And sometimes, they even felt like the greatest gift that I could give to the world around me.

I knew this because I had a strong connection with my heart and soul, and they knew - they hold the key to all of this.

Your heart and soul has all of the answers that you'll ever need, but they speak in whispers that are often too soft to hear amongst the fast-paced, ultra-demanding, noisy, world that we live in today.

One of the most powerful gifts you can give yourself is the gift of SPACE - space to hear, feel, and see that you've been ignoring and hiding from yourself.

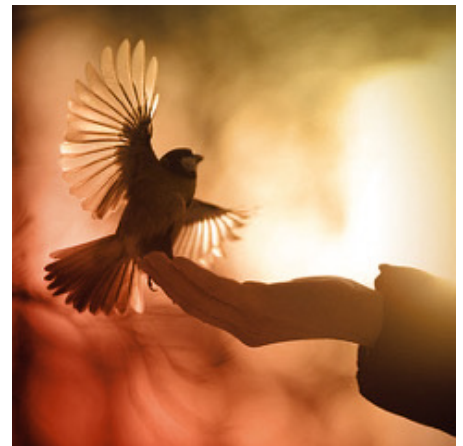

In each and every moment, and with every thought and action, you have the opportunity to become more alive, more awake, and more powerful than you've ever thought possible.

But you have to CHOOSE this for yourself - again, and again, and again.

Your new story, your new life - they begin the moment you decide.

This doesn't mean that life will forever more be filled with rainbows and roses, nor does it mean you never have to muster up your courage to face yet another challenge. But it does mean that you're devoted and that you've made a conscious commitment to YOU, YOUR LIFE, and YOUR DREAMS - from here on out.

If you're anything like me, you've likely asked yourself more than once, "Are you going to "do" this or not?" And while that small, quiet voice says "YES", the rest of you is faced with real life questions and quandries.... All that require powerful tools to get you from where you are to where you want to be.

If you're ready to commit to your most intoxicating and breathtaking life, here is what you will need:

- A clear, inspiring and intoxicating vision that takes your breath away and compels you toward it
- A bold commitment to taking consistent, daily, delicious action that makes you feel confident, radiant, powerful and alive
- A supportive community of forward thinking, open-hearted, visionary women like yourself, to cheer you forward, have your back, uplift you and walk by your side
- A successful mentor and guide who can see what you can't see, show you how to embody your true potential, reflect your truth back to you, and remind you to fully enjoy the BIG, beautiful life you're meant to live
- An environment of high-level accountability to yourself and to your transcendent, completely attainable dreams - anything less will not do
- A high vibrational and dedicated space that helps you sustain the mindset and energetic vibration of the woman you are becoming - who lives her life fully, passionately and joyfully, and treats herself like the VIP that she is

I am so committed to YOU and YOUR JOURNEY that I have brought together the best of my tools, resources, knowledge and experience to create a truly life-changing program and opportunity for you.

It's called the Quantum Living Program and it runs for 14 weeks starting on Thursday, September 8th, 2016.

Questions you might be asking...

Q: How will I know if now is the right time for me to join this program?

A: Knowing if this is the right time for you to join this program is a highly personal thing, and it's not something that I can rightfully tell you one way or the other. If you are seriously considering joining this program, I recommend that you place your hand on your heart, close your eyes, and ask for a very clear sign from God/Spirit/Source to show you if now is the right time for you to do something like this.

I am always amazed at the answers I receive when I do this. A few years ago I was trying to decide if I should invest in a $20k personal growth program (the highest investment I had made in myself at that time). I asked for a sign right before I went to sleep that night. The following morning, just before I woke I heard a powerful voice say to me, "It's time to rise!"

I knew I was receiving divine guidance to join that program and rise. So, I did! I have never regretted that decision, but I know I would have regretted not doing it!

Take some time to get clear with yourself. My experience in making decisions like this has been that deep in your heart you already know if now is the time. Follow your heart!

Q: How quickly will I see and feel changes in my life?

A: This program has been specifically designed to be a high-level, transformational program. As with anything, there are many variables that can influence the speed at which you begin to feel and see changes.

However, when you utilize the tools that I will give you and take committed and inspired action on a consistent basis in alignment with what reveals itself to you, there is absolutely no limit to what you might claim and manifest for yourself, or the speed at which it happens.

Q: What if I can't make it to one of the group calls during the program?

A: Attending the live calls is not mandatory, but it is highly recommended. I do personally feel that your level of commitment and your results will only be enhanced if you attend each and every call and participate to the fullest. However, if you must miss a group call you will have access to a recording that you can listen to through your computer, or download to any device for your convenience.
